

Exhibit 2

Defendant,

Magistrate Judge Maureen P. Kelly

3. I instructed each store manager to post a copy of the attached Exhibit B to the front of the store, taped to the inside of the glass to the interest. If this was not possible, I instructed store managers to post the notice in another prominent location. Exhibit B is substantially in the same form as Exhibit F to the Settlement. I instructed store managers to keep Exhibit B posted from December 9, 2013 to February 27, 2013.

4. I also asked each store manager to confirm in writing that they would (1) post the notice I sent, and (2) ensure the notice remained posted until February 27, 2013. Every store manager on the attached Exhibit A provided this written confirmation.

5. As far as I am aware, every store listed in Exhibit A has posted Exhibit B in a prominent location since December 9, 2013.

6. Consistent with the terms of the Settlement, after Settlement Class Counsel files a motion asking the Court to grant final approval to the Settlement, I plan to inform store managers that they may remove the notice.

Shoe Show Website Notice

7. On December 9, 2013, I caused Shoe Show to publish on its website (at www.shoeshow.com/class) a notice of the settlement. A true and correct copy of the notice that was published at that link is attached hereto as Exhibit C. Exhibit C is in substantially the same form as Exhibit E to the Settlement. That same day, I also caused Shoe Show to publish a link to this notice on the home page of its website. Exhibit C and the corresponding link on the homepage have remained on Shoe Show's website since December 9, 2013.

8. Consistent with the terms of the Settlement, after Settlement Class Counsel files a motion asking the Court to grant final approval to the Settlement, I plan to cause Shoe Show to remove the information on its website providing notice about this Settlement.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Dated: February 19, 2014.

Shoe Show, Inc. FACTA Class Action Lawsuit Settlement

A federal judge has preliminarily approved a class action lawsuit settlement with Shoe Show, Inc. over allegations that it violated federal law by electronically printing more than the last five digits of customers' credit and debit card numbers and/or credit/debit card expiration dates on customer receipts at retail stores. If you made a purchase with a credit or debit card at a Shoe Show, Inc. store, including "SHOE SHOW," "SHOE DEPT.," "SHOE DEPT. ENCORE," "Shoebilee!," or "Burlington Shoes," between June 3, 2008 and August 27, 2013, you may be eligible to claim a $35 ("Tier One") or $7 ("Tier Two") Voucher from the class action settlement.

The Shoe Show settlement will resolve a class action lawsuit alleging the company violated the Fair and Accurate Credit Transaction Act ("FACTA") by electronically printing expiration dates and/or more than the last five digits of customer credit and debit card numbers on customer receipts at retail stores (a "non-compliant receipt").

Shoe Show, Inc. denies any wrongdoing, but has agreed to compensate Class Members through a class action lawsuit settlement to resolve the litigation.

Class Members of the Shoe Show FACTA settlement include anyone who made a purchase at any Shoe Show, Inc. retail stores during the period from June 3, 2008 through August 27, 2013, using a credit card or debit card and who received a non-compliant receipt. The class excludes anyone who suffered identity theft as a result of any receipt they received from Shoe Show, Inc.

Class Members can claim a Tier One ($35) Voucher by submitting a completed Claim Form and providing the original or a legible copy of their non-compliant receipt.

The only way to receive a Tier One ($35) Voucher from the class action settlement is to submit a valid Claim Form along with a non-compliant receipt postmarked no later than 90 days after the date when the court has finally approved the settlement and that order is not subject to any further judicial review.

After all Tier One Vouchers have been distributed, Shoe Show, Inc. will distribute a maximum of 375,000 Tier Two ($7) vouchers. You do not need to submit a Claim Form to receive a Tier Two Voucher, which will be distributed in select Shoe Show stores on a first-come, first-served basis as further described in the settlement agreement.

Claim Forms and more information on your rights in the Shoe Show FACTA Class Action Lawsuit Settlement can be found at www.ShoeShowSettlement.com.

The case is Dover v. Shoe Show, Inc., Case No. 2:12-cv-00694-CB-MPK, United States District Court, Western District of Pennsylvania.
